BEST KEPT SECRET:

THOSE WHO ENCOURAGE STUDENTS ARE BEHIND THE SCENES

Supporting, cheering, working hard and sweating … doing it all. Many students, faculty, and staff members that do a lot to represent Mount St. Mary's College in a positive way, sometimes go unrecognized or fail to be in the spotlight. These students, faculty, and staff truly enjoy working with clubs and organizations by encouraging and motivating them to do their best. This is the "Best Kept Secret" that no one has ever dared to reveal. But for the first time ever, the unknown shall be known.

Faculty, advisors, and counselors – work around students' schedules, sit down and help explain a confusing chapter and have conversations with students. This group who impacts students and help with their education are appreciated but not recognized as often. The Faculty and Advisor Appreciation Week has improved students' awareness that faculty and advisors are not only there during office hours, but they go out of their way to help a struggling student do better.

Other staff members who go unnoticed, those who do so much behind the scenes but are always ready to assist with a smile. We all know them very well, the one's that deal with the countless financial and business issues, grades and classes, spirituality, health, student life, and just plain life in general – they are there to help keep you on track and give you a boost when you fall behind. Being at the Mount is more than a job to them – it is a place to make a difference and impact a student's life.

For many students, the Mount has become a home-away-from-home, and those who they interact with everyday are like guardians who help and watch over them.

Have you ever turned in a work request form for a leaky faucet only to return one day to your room and find it fixed? Could it be the Leaky Faucet Fixer Fairy? No … but it could be the hard workers of our housekeeping and facilities team. Rarely in the spotlight or even recognized or thanked for what they do, they do their job; in return, many have created friendships and bonds with students, faculty, staff, and other members of the college. The cooks, the shuttle drivers, those who clean the offices and set up the rooms for events are known by their names, smiles and friendly spirit; they help create a comfortable and safe second home for students and a great working environment for other staff and faculty .

So many people at the Mount are unrecognized or even acknowledged for what they do for this Mount family. So in this "Best Kept Secret," all will know of the many people who have made a difference and are making a difference in this college. This "Best Kept Secret" will no longer be a secret but will be exposed and revealed to all … the selfless dedication that all of these individuals behind the scenes possess. This is a thank you and a spotlight for you.

MOUNT
COLLEGE

Office of the President

Dear Graduates of 2006,

Hats off to the class of 2006! Congratulations to each one of you for all your accomplishments and for surmounting various challenges on the way to your degree. I know that you will take the knowledge and values learned at the Mount into your professions, the workplace, and your families. I hope that values such as honesty, gratitude, compassion, justice and love of yourself and neighbor will guide you throughout life. May you always find ways to help others, realizing that service is also a means to self-fulfillment and happiness.

Be all that you can be and continue growing intellectually, spiritually, and emotionally. You have earned a solid foundation at Mount St. Mary's College. Now, each of your choices will define the kind of person you will become. Each of you has the potential to make a significant contribution in life. Mount alumnae have a way of truly distinguishing themselves.

Please stay in touch with us at the College where you will always be welcome. God bless you as you continue life's journey following these memorable years at the Mount. It has been an honor and joy to serve as your president during your years here at Mount St. Mary's College.

With warmest wishes,

Jacqueline Powers Doud

Capital Campaign
2006

The Mount St. Mary's College Campaign Kick-off event was February 25, 2006. It launched the public phase of its $45 million "Invest in the Mount" Campaign. More than 450 Mount trustees, regents, faculty, staff, student leaders, alumnae, community leaders, and corporate friends attended this elegant "Venetian Carnivale" themed celebration. The Campaign raised money to go towards improvements on the Doheny and Chalon campus and scholarships for students.

Super Sacrament Sunday

"Super-Sacrament Sunday" - a more informal way of saying "Celebration of the Easter Sacraments" - took place on April 23, 2006 in Chalon's Mary Chapel. Bishop Gabino Zavala presided at this Mass, which included the baptisms of two small children of Mount students, the First Communion of five members of the Mount community, and the Confirmation of twenty-four individuals.

Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist are called the "Sacraments of Initiation" or "Easter Sacraments", since they are the way in which Catholics welcome people to new life in Christ - into the Church. In the early days of Christianity, people participated in all three of these sacraments at once - they entered new life in Christ through baptism, were "sealed in the Spirit" through Confirmation, and then joined the community around the Table in the Eucharist at the same liturgy. Over the years, as most people were baptized as infants, the three sacraments were often separated in time for children - but they are still celebrated together for adults.

In the Catholic tradition, there is no better way of celebrating the fifty-day Easter season than through the joyous celebration of these "Easter Sacraments!"

Jessica Correa of Campus Ministry fills the font for the Baptisms of Valentina Juanita Martinez and Rosemary Flores Ponce as Bishop Zavala anoints a candidate with Chrism Oil.

EDGE

Mary's Day is the annual celebration in which the college honors the woman for who it is named - Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Throughout the years, Mount St. Mary's has honored Mary in recognizing students who exemplify her spirit of courage, inspiration, service, and dedication to the development of their unique gifts.

As family and friends, faculty and administration join together in celebrating the achievements of Mount students, we also join together with Mary, who walked new paths with grace and determination, bringing life to the world - and who surely delights us in students who do the same.

Annual
Mary's Day
2006

Seniors Megan Beckerle, Elinor Rowe and Nicole Price await the procession to kick off the celebration of Mary's Day.

Sarah Bessell, ASB President, shakes Dr. Doud's hand as she receives one of her many well-deserved awards.

Vice President of Student Affairs, Dr. Jane Lingua, leads the procession from the awards ceremony to the crowning of Mary.

Hana Aubershaid, shakes Dr. Doud's hand as she receives her award.

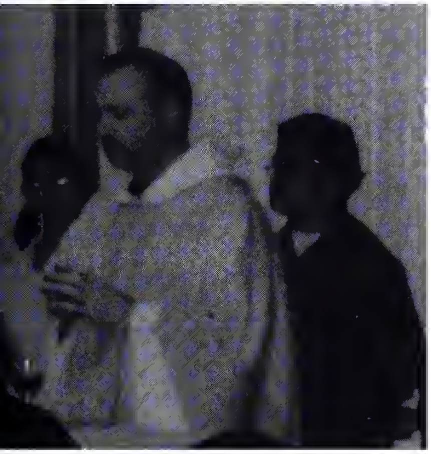
Senior, Leigh Ann Cruz celebrates her accomplishments with her parents.

Shelley Boniwell receives the honor, as a President's Award recipient, of crowning the statue of Mary.

1. Left to Right: College President, Dr. Jacqueline Doud welcomes students, families, and friends to celebrate Laurel Day.
2. Sister Janet Duffy, ASsociate in Arts Program Dean, introduces the departmental awards.
3. An honored student graciously accepts her award.
4. Dr. Doud, Bernie Roberts, Maria Lyons, and other faculty and staff watch proudly as students receive their awards.

Annual
Laurel Day
2006

Top to Bottom:
1. Fr. Christopher Drennen, a masters graduate, presides at the Laurel Day Liturgy.
2. Lissette Lopez, an AA graduate, waits for her family after mass.
3. AA graduates hold their candles facing the assembly.



Faculty, Staff, student and family gather around the altar in celebration with Fr. Christopher Drennen.

AA graduates stand and listen, holding their candles with pride, as they receive a special blessing from the Mount community and their families and friends.

Graduates process out of the chapel and move on to the next event, the Laurel Day awards ceremony.

Maxine Chieng smiles with joy after receiving her award as Sarah Bessell displays her array of awards after the ceremony.

Eunice Lee returns to her seat with a smile on her face after receiving her award and a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Maryann Nguyen and Shelley Boniwell, recipients of the Leadership in Ministry Awards proudly stand next to Laura Gomez, Coordinator of Campus Ministry and Gail Gresser, Director of Campus Ministry.

Celebrating Excellence in Student Involvement

Resident Assistants, Megan Beckerle, Nicole Price, and Paulette Thompson snack on appetizers before the ceremony begins.

Clockwise: Sasha Mejia, Diana Salcedo, and Rosa Barahona enjoy themselves just as Claudia Preciado and Megan Beckerle share a moment together and Adeline Tabanera shares her big smile with everyone.

Claudia Preciado and Geralyn Krieger were recognized for their positions as Resident Assistants for 2005-2006.

Rosalyn Kempf and Audra DiPadova, of Women's Leadership, celebrate with the young women of the Mount as ASB shows off their awards.

Mass of the Holy Spirit

The Mass of the Holy Spirit is a widespread tradition in most Catholic institutions of higher education (and some high schools and other institutions as well). It typically consists of the gathering of the whole community in a celebration of the year that is still in its beginning stages and is rooted in the hopes for the growth and development of the community over that time.

The service is very positive in tone, creative in expression, and focused upon the profound connection of the many diverse people who, together, form the community of the college. Everyone is encouraged to join the festivities by wearing red that day - the symbolic color of the Holy Spirit.

While many colleges celebrate the Mass of the Holy Spirit in September, Mount St. Mary's College has chosen days around October 15 which is the official anniversary of the founding of the college in 1925.

Fr. John Coleman, presider of the Mass, and Dr. Doud wait outside of the chapel for the procession to start.

Dr. Sande Harte, Sociology Professor an Chair of the Faculty Assembly, carries th candle for the procession with sociolog student major, Shanat Lopez.

Tiffany Ramelb, Faith Nilo, Jessica Correa, Bev Suson, Molly Lander, Shanat Lopez, and Andrea Melgoza enjoy the sunshine after the celebration.

Introduced in 1991, the Student Ambassador Program is one of MSMC's community/high school partnership programs that motivate thousands of high school students to complete high school and aspire to a college education. The Student Ambassadors work with the high school students, and in some cases their parents, answering questions which pertain to the college application process, preparation for college, college life, financial aid, and provide assistance to the high school counselors. When we are able, we send an Ambassador back to the high school from which she graduated. Thus, the Ambassador's very presence in the counseling office says, "If I can do it, so can you!"

The National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) is a nationally recognized organization for resident students. NRHH members must be nominated by their peers in order to be inducted into the organization. NRHH serves to recognize outstanding programs, student leaders, staff, and faculty members on a monthly basis. These nominations are then sent to the national office, where MSMC has the opportunity to receive national recognition. Additionally, NRHH puts on educational and social programs for the residents. Some programs in the past include, alcohol awareness night, a Halloween event, and movie nights.

"We've got spirit, yes we do, we've got spirit how 'bout you?" Students all around campus show their pride and support for the many activities that happen on and around campus. Some events and programs are bigger than others. Some take weeks of planning and goes on for the whole month while some are just a one day event that has as much heart and energy that goes into planning it.

Students attend presentations on documentaries such as Amy Eldon's "Dying to Tell the Story", speakers such as Alephonsion Deng, a survivor of the genocide in Sudan, shows such as "You the Man" which talked about rape, abuse, and awareness, donate to drives such as the one for Katrina victims, and so much more.

Spirit goes into what this college represents and in everything that is presented, Safety Week, AIDs Awareness, honoraries, an Elf Christmas and other celebrations, and more. Students participate and are not afraid to show their pride in their school and in their beliefs. We have spirit, YES WE DO!

It's all a part of life because you need food to live and survive. Here is an ode to food.

Student Workers - Some are working to help pay for their school tuition, while others pocket the money and use it to pay for books and supplies. But no matter what, these students always give their 100% in whatever they do, from answering the phones, to lugging boxes up to the fourth floor of Humanities, to getting mail in the mailroom.

Many offices around campus have student workers - the Library, Admissions, Health Services, ASB, Campus Ministry, the many different departments (Nursing, Music, etc.), the Learning Center, Business Office, and Financial Aid, to name a few.

Students are there to help the professional staff in whatever they need, no matter how small or how big the task is. They are there and give it their all.

Not much credit is given to students who never get to see a paycheck, or must use their hard earned money from workstudy to pay for school. So here is another ode to Student Workers who always have a smile on their face and make things fun in what they do.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Some students have made the Mount their home away from home. Some do it willingly and choose to do so, while others have no other choice.

We have students whose primary residence is as close as LA, whereas others are in Hawaii. One year, we had students coming from Washington, Virginia, and even Afghanistan.

At the Mount, students have the option of living on campus all four years of their college life whereas UC schools do not have that option. And so, we have students who stay on campus all four years or just a few years and then move out to an apartment. They've made their dorm room their own room, and their second home that they can call their own.

This is how a college student lives.

"Heaven has taken our angel."
You may have lost your battle on this earth
but you will live on forever in our hearts.
Gone but never forgotten.
We will miss you greatly.

Mari, we want to thank you for everything that you have done for us. You have been the best "MOM" possible. You have helped us through our many problems, taught us how to be responsible at work, and never doubted that we could do something, even when we doubted ourselves. We are going to miss you greatly. Thank you! Love-Your "daughters"
